To, The Members of the Selection Committee, [University Name, if applicable] Russia.

Subject: Statement of Purpose for Admission into the Master's Degree Program in International Relations.

Dear Members of the Selection Committee,

I am writing to express my strong motivation to apply for the Master's Degree program in International Relations for the 2026 academic year. Having completed my Bachelor's degree in Political Science from the National University of Bangladesh, I am eager to deepen my understanding of global diplomacy within your esteemed institution.

My academic journey has provided me with a solid foundation in political theory, international politics, and global affairs. During my undergraduate studies, I developed a keen interest in Eurasian geopolitics, which led me to conduct my major research project titled "Strategic Diplomacy: Russia-Bangladesh Relations". In this research, I analyzed energy cooperation, specifically the Rooppur NPP project, and the evolving trade dynamics between the two nations. This academic experience has uniquely prepared me to pursue postgraduate studies in an international environment like Russia.

Beyond academia, I am currently serving as an NGO professional, where I manage community-based programs and development initiatives. This role has granted me a practical perspective on policy implementation and the critical role of international cooperation in social development. Interestingly, my proficiency in Full-stack Web Development (MERN) has also allowed me to approach political analysis through a modern, data-driven lens, bridging the gap between social science and digital transformation.

I am particularly drawn to Russia for my Master's studies due to its pivotal role in global governance and its historical excellence in diplomatic education. I am confident that my background in Political Science, combined with my professional experience in the NGO sector and my beginner-level command of the Russian language, makes me a strong candidate for this program.

Upon completion of my Master's degree, I aim to contribute to international policy development and peacebuilding efforts within global organizations. I am fully committed to maintaining academic excellence and am confident that this program will be the cornerstone of my professional career.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing my candidacy further.

Sincerely,

Robiul Hossen
